Objectives and Investment Policy

Investment Objective:

The Fund aims to provide long term capital growth.

Investment Policy:

The Fund will invest in broad range of instruments which may include: shares and bonds, eligible collective investment schemes, other transferable securities such as cash and cash equivalents, and financial derivative instruments.

The Fund may invest in shares including common stocks and other transferable securities such as convertible securities, preferred securities, participation notes, convertible preferred securities, warrants and rights or securities similar to shares which are listed or traded on recognised markets worldwide. The Fund will not necessarily invest in securities from any particular industry sector or country, and will not have a specific target allocation between small, medium and large market sized companies.

The Fund may invest up to 40% of its NAV in bonds and other similar securities. The Fund may invest in investment grade bonds, non-investment grade bonds (including unrated), and bonds which may have fixed or floating rates that are listed or traded on recognised markets worldwide, including emerging market countries. These fixed income securities may be subordinated or insubordinated, and are not limited by sector or industry.

The Fund may invest Sukuk and in bonds issued by the Islamic Liquidity Management Corporation (ILMC), governments, government-related entities and companies in emerging market countries and denominated in the currencies of emerging market countries. The Fund may invest up to 10% of its NAV in securities issued by the ILMC which are UCITS eligible certificates representing interests in short term fixed income Sukuk instruments.

The Fund may invest up to 100% of its NAV in shares of Shariah compliant funds, including exchange traded funds, with up to 20% in a single fund. The Fund may invest no more than 20% of its NAV in exchange traded commodities and up to 10% of its NAV in cash which shall either grant no return on the sum deposited or a return on a Shariah-compliant basis.

The Fund may invest substantially in investments in emerging market countries.

When the Fund's portfolio is constructed, the following factors, in relation to the asset classes and each issuer will be taken into account: historic and expected returns and volatility; liquidity terms; and links between asset classes, issuers and holdings. The Investment Manager selects securities and funds that will provide the Fund with the optimal method of gaining these exposures, based on the expected risk and return profile at both an asset class and at Fund level.

The Fund will maintain adherence to Shariah principles interpreted by the Shariah Committee and advised to the Investment Manager and the Management Company. The Shariah committee will issue an annual Shariah compliance certificate.

The Fund may also invest in Shariah compliant derivatives for investments, hedging and efficient portfolio management purposes (such as to manage risk and costs, or to generate additional capital or income).

Risk and Reward Profile

The risk and reward indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.

The risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time. The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.

Why is this Fund in this specific category?

This Fund is classified in category 5 because its price or simulated data has shown medium to high fluctuations historically.

Material risks not fully captured by the Risk and Reward Indicator:

- ◆ Counterparty Risk The possibility that the counterparty to a transaction may be unwilling or unable to meet its obligations.
- ◆ Credit Risk A bond or money market security could lose value if the issuer's financial health deteriorates.
- ◆ Default Risk The issuers of certain bonds could become unwilling or unable to make payments on their bonds.

- ◆ Derivatives Risk Derivatives can behave unexpectedly. The pricing and volatility of many derivatives may diverge from strictly reflecting the pricing or volatility of their underlying reference(s), instrument or asset.
- ◆ Emerging Markets Risk Emerging markets are less established, and often more volatile, than developed markets and involve higher risks, particularly market, liquidity and currency risks.
- ◆ Exchange Rate Risk Changes in currency exchange rates could reduce or increase investment gains or investment losses, in some cases significantly.
- ◆ Interest Rate Risk When interest rates rise, bond values generally fall. This risk is generally greater the longer the maturity of a bond investment and the higher its credit quality.
- ◆ Investment Fund Risk Investing in other funds involves certain risks an investor would not face if investing in markets directly. Governance of underlying assets can be the responsibility of third-party managers.
- ◆ Investment Leverage Risk Investment Leverage occurs when the economic exposure is greater than the amount invested, such as when derivatives are used. A Fund that employs leverage may experience greater gains and/or losses due to the amplification effect from a movement in the price of the reference source.
- ◆ Liquidity Risk Liquidity Risk is the risk that a Fund may encounter difficulties meeting its obligations in respect of financial liabilities that are settled by delivering cash or other financial assets, thereby compromising existing or remaining investors.
- ◆ Operational Risk Operational risks may subject the Fund to errors affecting transactions, valuation, accounting, and financial reporting, among other things.
